

“Keeping Distancing from Destroying”

Acts 15:36-41

1. Where there are good things occurring, you can bet that the devil is there trying to get a foothold.
2. Sometimes, the means by which he gains access can be the staunch, unbending opinions of good brethren.
3. We can never forge ahead in the work of the church unless our behavior is tempered with the love for one another and for the cause of Christ.
4. Consider 6 principles from Acts 15 about when distance threatens to destroy.

Good and faithful brethren:

- I. May _____ on matter of _____ and _____
- II. May and do _____ on some _____ of _____
- III. May _____ on matter of _____ judgment
- IV. May have very _____ for their _____
- V. Should not _____ and _____ the _____
- VI. Can be _____ by God and be a _____ to others
