

A CELESTIAL MYSTERY SOLVED : The Secret to an Unknown Human Power

by GW Hardin

When Kabuki said that he would post this mystery of a picture, that had shown up out of nowhere, on his blog and let the “crowd source” (his blog members) bring forth the answer, I had my doubts. But no longer.

I will present three revelations that showed up around this picture:

1. What is this picture? And where did it come from?
2. Why the celestials want humanity to know about it's secret.
3. What is the DNA tesseract? And why is it so important?

This isn't the first time a picture has shown up out of nowhere on the computer of my longtime protege, Matthew Michaels. I consider Matt a young adept of the first order. The year I first met him, he would have been called an Indigo or one of the Super Psychics originally talked about in China. Unfortunately, the reason his mother beseeched me to visit him was because he was dying. His doctors could do nothing for him. Since then he has made me aware of worlds that few ever hear of, let alone visit. Not only has he been pursued by Black Ops, but also sought after by tribal Elders. That's how impressive he can be. It's also why I have kept him a secret all these years. His journey has not been an easy one. Too many times has he ended up in emergency rooms. And too many times I've had to show him how to pull himself away from the jaws of death. But it's time to bring him out of hiding. He's now a force to be reckoned with.

Matt has been fully initiated into the Pure Sioux as a tribal member because of the prophecies they saw fulfilled in him. In my latest book, A World Beyond Belief, I write about some of his story, using the pseudonym “Jake.”

Over the years I've known Matt, I've watched objects disappear into thin air as well as appear out of nowhere. For years, information has shown up from unknown sources on disappearing and reappearing thumb drives locked in safes, apparently for the purpose of bringing forth information that I have begun to present on one of my websites: www.soundsofwonder.com. This latest mystery is connected to that information and articles I have written on that website. This latest mystery is also connected to a series of angel appearances (not channelings) I have written about in two other books around a man named Joseph Crane (www.gwhardin.com). So when this latest picture showed up on Matt's computer out of nowhere, I knew there was a reason. And thanks to Kabuki, I can reveal part of that information.

WHAT IS THIS PICTURE? AND WHERE DID IT COME FROM?

The picture that Kabuki posted is a 2-dimensional rendering of a 4-dimensional object. These 4D geometric constructs are finding important use more and more in mathematics, especially around simulation graphics where supercomputers have to churn out special-effects movies and globally interactive super-games. But more importantly, a whole new technology is emerging around the science of scalars. I will get into a little more later.

This mystery object is not a 4D buckyball. Nor is it a truncated icosahedron or a dodecahedron. In the mathematical world this object is called a hecatonicosachoron. Here is a 2D rendering of this object:

As a 4D operating graphic you can go to this YouTube video and see how it operates in 4D/3D space:

http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Cpl4GW1Y4_g

You get even a better perspective of how this complex configuration operates in 3D space at:

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/120-cell#Perspective_projections and scroll down to the rotating 3D projection. It's mind-boggling.

But what use are these 4D renderings? To fully appreciate the answer we will have to take a brief walk down the halls of quantum physics. What more and more scientists are beginning to find out is that there exist factors in life that show up out of nowhere and disappear into nowhere (on a much greater scale than what is happening with Matt). For instance, quantum physicists are being confronted by the realities of bio-photons, which they now realize show up in such quantities in the presence of human consciousness (in a single room) that they actually exceed the number of photons given off by the sun. The work of Nassim Hamein and his mathematical proofs are pointing to even greater paradoxes. But so what?

What most of this information is pointing to is the presence of tesseracts. These phenomena are defined as "a four-dimensional hypercube having sixteen corners."

This geometry is actually a gateway across dimensions. In two of my books, I refer to angelic gateways (obviously used by the angelic realm), that were given to humanity in order to work with celestials. These angelic gateways are also tesseract geometry. To keep this simple, I'm going to say that I personally do not restrict tesseracts to hypercubes. I now know that tesseracts can be based on different polyhedra other than the cube. The picture posted by Kabuki is a hexagonal/pentagonal based polyhedron that serves as the basic design for this dimensional gateway given to us once again by celestials, not unlike the angelic gateway (The Masters Return by Joseph Crane and GW Hardin).

To illustrate that the picture posted by Kabuki is a tesseract, I have drawn reference lines to show how it operates in similar fashion to a hypercube:

You will notice that like the hypercube there is an inner component (or shell) and an outer component which work in 3D rendering as noted above.

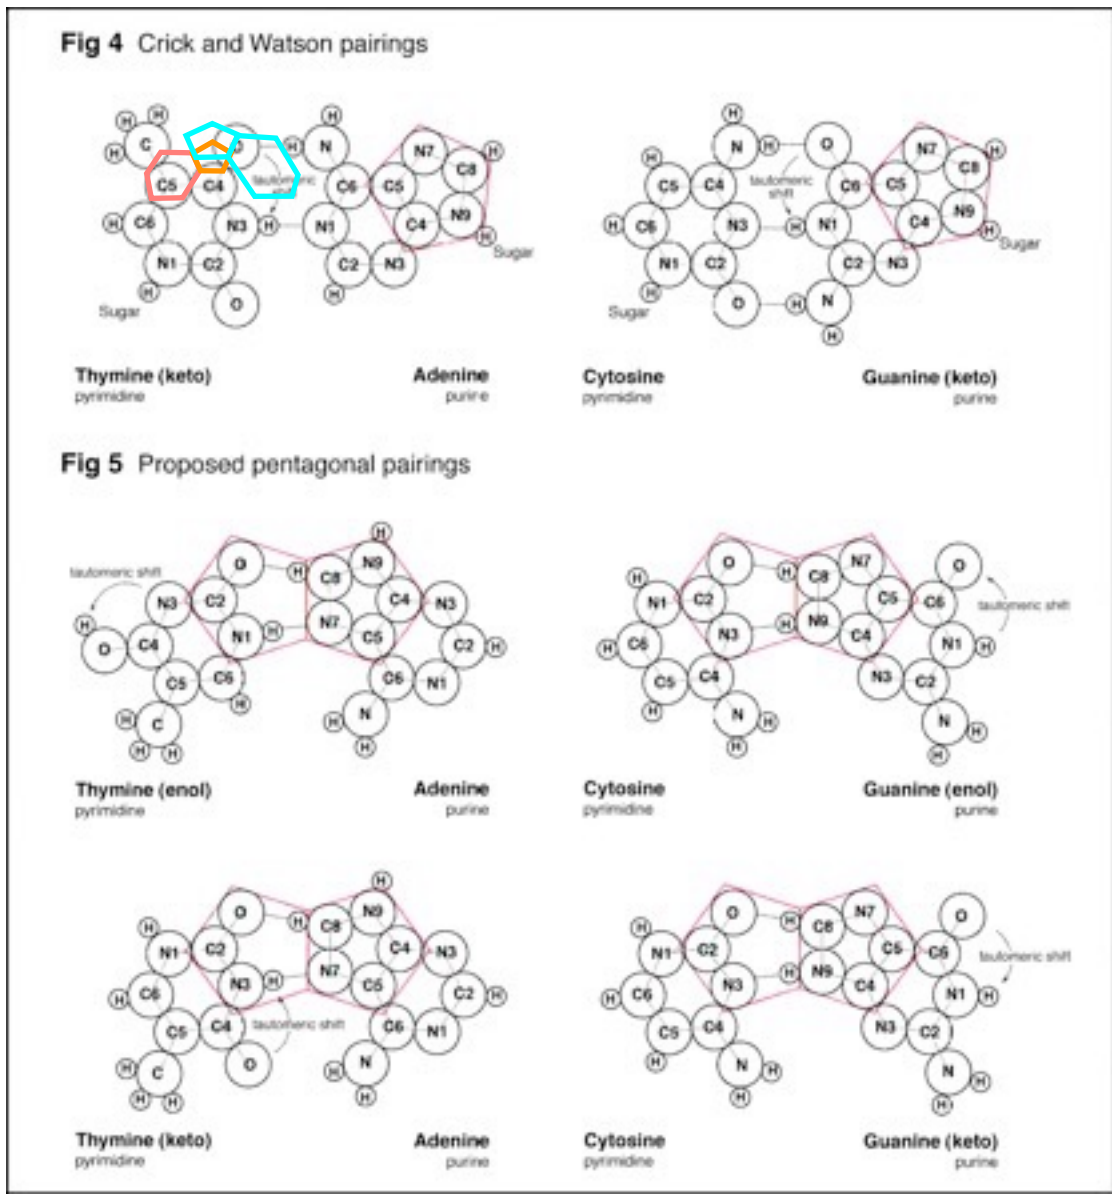

Note that the basic geometry is hexagonal and pentagonal. This 4D geometry, I have discovered is used by human DNA. It would take several pages to explain that, but what I will simply point out is that the geometry of DNA nucleotides is completely mimicked by this rotating geometry. Thus I call this particular pattern generating a “DNA tesseract.”

There is far more to this patterning than meets the eye. First, look what happens when you compare the geometry of DNA nucleotides to the revolving patterns of the DNA tesseract:

You see there is an exact match for all the patterns. But again, so what? That brings me to the discovery of the work of a German scientist who is being called the “new Einstein.” His work was brought to my attention also because of Kabuki who ended up allowing Michael Sharpe, an IT brain, to come into my life. Sharpe introduced me to the work of Dr. Konstantin Meyl.

What Meyl has done is discover how DNA itself creates scalar waves ... a most controversial topic among the physics world. Scalars have the ability to travel faster than the speed of light without losing energy, which thusly allows them to cross dimensions. It was in Meyl's book (DNA and Cell Resonance) that I came to realize that the hydrogen electrons surrounding the hexagonal and pentagonal shapes of the DNA literally spin not solely around the hydrogen atom but around the entire molecule that makes up the pentagons and hexagons. This spinning of the hydrogen electron cloud causes the creation of vortexes. And these vortexes are the generators of scalar waves throughout the human body. The human body is a de-facto massive collection of DNA tesseract gateways. See my article on DNA geometry at

This now gets us into the punch line of this article.

WHY THE CELESTIALS WANT HUMANITY TO KNOW ABOUT IT'S SECRET

A little over a week ago there were two appearances by Archangel Gabriel, one to a young 9 year-old girl, the other to a tribal Elder of the Sioux. Both parties contacted Matthew Michaels to let him know what had happened, because he had worked closely with both these people. I have not met the Elder but I did assist Matt in working with the young girl, who two years ago began speaking in a strange language, which frightened her mother. I discovered that this young girl was in fact speaking ancient Latin, quoting a famous work of Socrates. The tribal Elder is considered a medicine woman and held in high regard by her tribe. Gabriel had left both of them with the same two messages:

1. The time of darkness for humanity has come to an end.
2. The angelic realm has bound itself to the realm of humans.

In the Joe Crane material, appearances of Archangel Michael included a statement repeated three times over a 12 year period: “Our kind wishes to bind with your kind.”

In the last two years, I was involved in situations where it was found out that only recently have other star nations discovered that humanity is among the most SPIRITUALLY advanced species of the universe. And the reason why stems from information from a very high order of extradimensional beings called the Elohim, who revealed in this last year that secretly buried in human DNA is angelic DNA, at the heart of our spiritual advancement. Naturally, most people would yell, “No way!” Look what we’ve done to each other, and what we’ve done to our planet. If you will research the Internet you will find information released by government whistleblowers that will reveal that for millennia we have been dumbed down so as not to realize our own greatness. You will even find a version of the truth of this revelation in one of the books from the Nag Hammadi Library, called “The Apocryphon of John.” I could write a book about this.

So these two latest appearances by Gabriel are a formal announcement that humanity not only is one with the angelic realm, but also that humanity will no longer suffer from those who have ruled from the darkness.

Three articles of mine speak more as to how all this will happen:

WHAT IS THE DNA TESSERACT? AND WHY IS IT SO IMPORTANT?

In Meyl’s interview (cited above on YouTube), he talks about how he has not only uncovered the secrets of Tesla hidden away under U.S. intelligence classification, but he goes beyond Tesla in announcing another scalar component known as magnetic scalars. It is these magnetic scalars that are created by the DNA tesseract. In his lab, Meyl has shown the incredible healing capacity that magnetic scalars play in bringing the pattern of broken or unhealthy DNA back into a healthy state. He also talks about MDs now using his “kits” in their offices as a healing device for diseases that modern medicine seems incapable of healing.

In the future I will reveal even more about how humans not only can learn about this great secret held within them, but how they can change reality with the DNA tesseract (those who have been to my lectures have seen me demonstrate this before an audience), how humanity has access to dimensions that make the idea of scarcity or “not enough energy” or the notion of continual pain in our world obsolete.

What Dr. Meyl has discovered is that human DNA can be the bedrock of telepathy, and scalar wave technology the source of an entirely new telecommunications system that can still work with cell phones but in a faster, cheaper, and far more environmentally safe way. Meyl has brought together the mystery of Tesla, the Black Hole/White Whole model of Nassim Hamein, and the mathematics of nature as found in Marko Rodin’s work. He has done this in such a way that humanity will soon find out that we possess within us a power we never dreamed possible—the Power of Wellness, the Power of Wholeness, and the Power of Oneness. And this power gives us the ability to collectively recreate Eden on Earth. And honestly, we don’t even have to wait.

I want to thank all the commenters on Kabuki's blog who pointed me in the right direction, allowing me to put together the bigger picture that the celestials now want us to be aware of. And more than that, do something with it. I especially want to thank Kabuki for perpetrating a visit to the "crowd source." He knows that collectively we are far more than the sum of our parts.
