

Christi'an Yellowdy

Bio

Compassionate, insightful, stimulating and persistent are just some words to describe Christi'an Yellowdy. Born in 1980 in Youngstown, Ohio, Christi'an was groomed to be a person for the people. Growing up, Christi'an enjoyed many activities including singing, writing and performing. She has earned countless academic awards and at age 21, she made her way to Washington DC with family.

While in DC, she secured a job with the American Psychiatric Association. She worked there while attending and eventually co-teaching at The Calvary Bible Institute. She also wrote for an online web show under the alias Ms. Tips and wrote for, managed and promoted several artists local to the DMV area.

Along with being married to Harrisburg Sharks football player and Melange Model, DeMaurion Raye, Christi'an is mother to 5 incredibly beautiful and talented children and an abuela to 1. She is the Operations Manager for Boyo Transportation where she oversees special needs transportation for hundreds of district students daily and is currently a BBW (Big Beautiful Woman) model coach for Melange Modeling.

Christi'an looks forward to serving not just her community but neighboring communities as the opportunities arise. She can be reached via e-mail at chrisyellowdy@gmail.com or by phone at 202.276.1269.

The Office of Social Equity and affirmative action provides internal and external leadership, coordination and information to help the City of Harrisburg employees and citizens promote and sustain an environment of diversity, equity, respect and inclusiveness for all members of the City of Harrisburg through education, intervention, compliance, training, assessment, programming and support services.
