VALERIE CARELOCK

Bio

Born and raised in Harrisburg, Valerie left and resided in the Williamsport area for approximately twenty-years before returning to Harrisburg.

She earned an Associate's Degree in Human Resources Management and attended the University of Phoenix.

She worked as a Court Appointed Special Advocate for three years, a certified Nursing Assistant for over 10 years and drove for Medical Mobile Health Unit and Easton Coach transportation in Harrisburg.

Highlights of her careers so far: completing surveys for individuals accessing mental health services, then creating surveys for the improvement of services, supporting families and children going through crisis.

She possesses a Certificate of completion from the American Red Cross CPR/ AED for Pro Rescuers.

She is a member of the NAACP.

Her passion is being sensitive to the needs of others. "I am quiet strength, wanting to listen before I respond. Caring for individuals and trying to make the world a better place is in my heart."
