How to Get Away (Without Actually Going Anywhere)

For those times when you need to get away but don't want to go anywhere.

Lotte New York Palace, New York City

Bringing the kids along kind of defeats the purpose for most parents looking for a staycation, but sometimes you have no choice. The Lotte New York Palace is currently offering a Palace Princess Package, which could easily work as a birthday treat for your child. You'll find a pink princess costume in your room after checking in (sizing will be worked out upon booking), as well as a Palace bathrobe and slippers, and a plate of princess cookies at turndown. You can also take your little one to the spa for a 25 percent off "Mommy and Me" mani-pedi. Rates start at $260 a night for a Superior Room.
