letter from the editor

June's issue of Posh Kids Magazine was another huge success and we are happily overwhelmed with the huge increase of Posh Kids readers and followers! Posh Kids Magazine is expanding each and every issue and we are so pleased with how it is being received so excitedly by you all.

Our last issue had two fabulous covers with the incredible stars Ella Anderson and Ashley Gerasimovich, which was done by the incredible photographer, Michael Creagh. Ella had a beautiful shoot with some adorable furry friends from Animal Haven Shelter of NYC and we were so amazed at how well her cover and feature came out (we were also overjoyed with raising awareness of shelter animals of whom are in need of a new home and love). Ashley shot such a fun, light, and airy shoot; they had such a fantastic time capturing the exceptional images for her feature. Posh Kids Magazine thoroughly enjoyed meeting with these wonderful rising stars and learning so much more about them through their interviews.

We are very impressed about this issue with our cover shoot with the bubbly Disney Channel star Jenna Ortega (who in her 13 years of life has come so far). We have learned so much about her and her career as a young Latina actress, starting with her new role in theatre playing a bratty teenager named Emily who is separated from her parents in NYC. She went on to tell us how she would love the opportunity to work alongside Denzel Washington, as she has admired him for many years. We were also able to talk with Jenna's mother, who revealed that Jenna was 1 of her 6 children, and that she finds it very surreal seeing so many kids looking up to Jenna. It was such a pleasure in having them on set and really getting to know them- Jenna was so humble and full of life. Another rising star that we were fortunate to meet was Maxwell James, who plays Adam Warren from the hit series "The Family", and having him join us on set for some fun and games. His shoot was highly entertaining- we had him doing all sorts of moves to capture him in his best light. Everyone, including Maxwell, thoroughly enjoyed it on set that day.

Planning a vacation? This issue we help to plan the ultimate family getaway and give you some great kid-inspired summer looks to bring along. Join us at the famous Coney Island in Brooklyn to see the joy of summer, while our featured editorial pro-to-type shows us an example of a family that's all about luxury. The shoot takes place in the luxurious Jewel Suite at The Towers of Lotte New York Palace, shot by New York Fashion photographer Maximo Hamilton. An issue packed full of amazing editorials for your viewing pleasures is waiting just a read away!

We hope you thoroughly enjoy this issue; we really aimed to make every issue better than the last and to bring you the latest in fashion, travel, and celebrity highlights for you and your Posh Kids and Family. We are ecstatic with the direction the magazine is going and all of the exciting upcoming events for Posh Kids Magazine.

Enjoy,
Cat Lamerique
