“Visiting the Big Apple? These are the luxurious hotels you need to check into.”

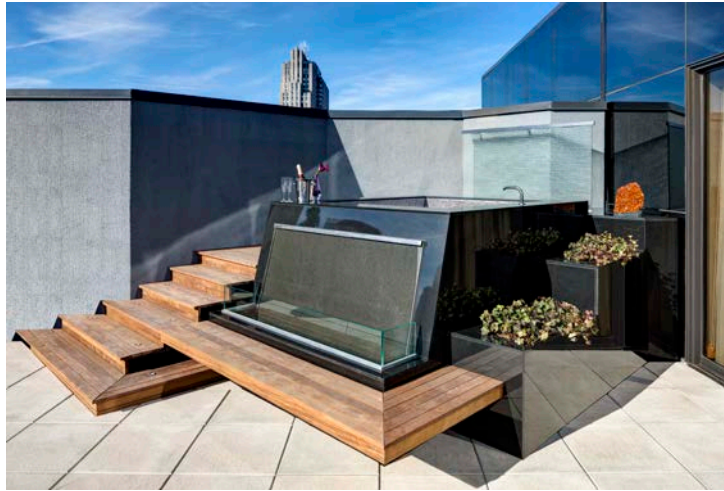

The Towers – Lotte New York Palace

In 2013, as part of a massive $140 million renovation of the public areas of the New York Palace, the hotel also incorporated a $25 million renovation of its “hotel-within-a-hotel”, The Towers, and its elite 176 rooms and suites occupying the top 14 floors of the hotel.

LOTTE NEW YORK PALACE

A private entrance for Towers guests with a dedicated concierge team and two 5,000sqft specialty suites, The Jewel Suite by Martin Katz and The Champagne Suite.

Rarities (its name says it all) is an intimate 25-seat bar/salon within the Villard Mansion. Only invited guests have access to the space via a discreet entrance. The menu features exceptional Champagnes, pre-prohibition bottled spirits, modern classics, and a connoisseur's wine cellar. Of course it comes with a price tag! The cheapest drink being around $40 and the most expensive? $3,000.
