

Harnessing the Power of Big Buildings in Small Towns:

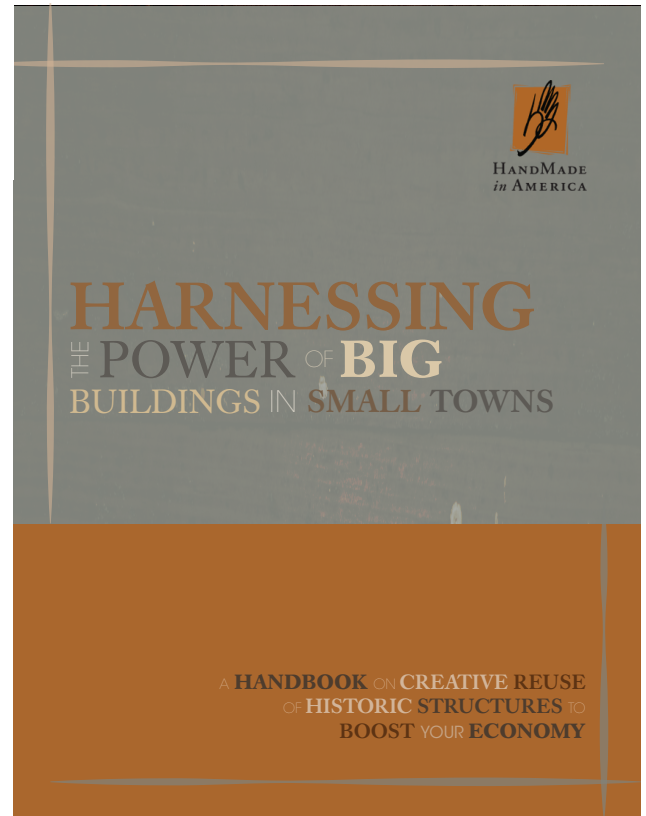

A Handbook on Creative Reuse of Historic Structures to Boost Your Economy

Daunting, audacious, and daring.

Small towns undertaking the rehabilitation of large buildings in their communities use words like these to describe the adventure they're about to undertake. Who will manage the project? How do we find companies to do the design and construction work? How and who will raise the money? Can this project be self-sustaining?

Through a close look at successful rehabilitation projects in towns throughout western North Carolina, Western North Carolina and HandMade Small Town leaders answer questions such as these to create a road map for current and future projects.

This Handbook will help assure your completed work not only preserves an important piece of history, but helps create jobs and assure the economic development of the community.

Preorder your copy of Big Buildings in Small Towns by December 15, 2010.

Retail price: $24.95 (publication date January 1, 2011). Pre-publication price only $20.

Name _____ email _____

Mailing address _____

Billing Address _____

Credit card type and number _____

Return this form with you check or credit card to:

Publications, HandMade in America, 125 S Lexington Ave., #101, Asheville, NC 28801