

HANDMADE
in AMERICA

HandMade in America's mission is to grow handmade economies through craft, cultural heritage and community assets. We envision a thriving region that leverages the distinctive cultural assets of its people and the spirit of community. HandMade in America primarily works in 22 counties in Western North Carolina, serving many of the region's small towns and communities.

We believe in the power of the handmade to transform both individuals and communities. We believe in building partnerships and economies in a culture that nourishes. HandMade is comprised of The HandMade in America Foundation and The HandMade in America Community Development Corporation, both 501-(c)-3 nonprofit entities.
