Women In Transition

We want to Thank all of those who volunteered for our Day of Caring project. It was a great success. In addition our wonderful delivery guys from NWSID were able to deliver a whole house full of furniture to a domestic violence victim on the same day that they delivered all the furniture to the Bethlehem House

(the day of caring project). What would we do without Ron Best and Rodney Stratton? They are awesome!!

Most of the rest of the furniture we had in storage at CFM's warehouse was delivered to the Bethlehem House project.

Since then, we have had several really nice donations of furniture, so we will be ready to provide for the needs of several Domestic Violence victims in the coming year.

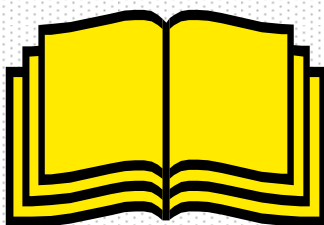

Thanks for all the donations and time!
Robin Kmet and Cara Fleming, co chairs,
Women in Transition

Resource Library

Calling all PRA's

Under the direction of Karen Lunn-Fisher, we are setting up a resource library in the NWSID office for designers to access for their design projects. We would like to have all the PRA's represented with their samples and or literature.

Please contact Karen Lunn-Fisher @ 425-361-3980 or lunnfisherdesign@comcast.net to arrange getting your information to the library

Rosters

If you would like a hard copy of the roster, you can pick one up at a chapter meeting or at the off on Mondays, Tuesday & Thursdays from 1-5

Happy New Year!

Now that the Holidays are past, and we've said good-bye to the "aughts", it seems a good time to project our thoughts forward into the new decade and visualize prosperity, strengthened relationships, and, of course, abundant projects – for all of us. I'm confident this new year of twenty-ten is just the beginning of great things! Our organization is stronger and getting better every day – please consider lending your time and vision toward building NWSID into the best it can be.

We owe huge thanks to Pental Granite Stone and Marble for hosting our holiday party on December 15th and helping us close out the year in style. They really went above and beyond – even donating crackers to the food table when we ran out! They have our eternal gratitude..... And special thanks to Santa (Larry Lauer) for gracing our party – he was terrific! Be sure to join us for the next chapter meeting January 19th at Parker Paints in Bellevue. Check your inbox for the invite. See you there!
