Debra Stracke Anderson Receives Top Leadership Award from ITRA Global

Debra Stracke Anderson, President of Sloan Street Advisors / ITRA Global, received the 2016 Ronald R. Pollina PhD Leadership Award conferred by ITRA Global, the largest commercial real estate organization devoted to representing corporate tenants and buyers around the world.

The award was presented during the organization's 2016 International Spring Conference held at the Pelican Grand Beach Resort in Ft. Lauderdale April 8 – 10. Anderson is the first to receive the top leadership award, which honors the memory of Dr. Ronald Pollina, who was CEO of ITRA Global's Chicago affiliate and a renowned industry leader in corporate site selection. Dr. Pollina passed away in 2015.

Anderson served as Chairman of the Board of Directors for ITRA Global for 2010 and 2011, marking the first time a woman held the seat, during which she led the organization through unprecedented global expansion. She currently works with the board in an advisory capacity as Chairman Emeritus. "ITRA Global is a unique organization, uniting the brightest in the industry and differentiated by our focus on advocacy for the corporate user," says Anderson. "Receiving an award that honors Dr. Pollina is especially meaningful. He was highly respected in the entire industry, both as a geoeconomist, as author of the esteemed annual "Pollina Top Ten Pro Business States" report, and as the expert on corporate real estate."

Anderson founded Sloan Street Advisors in 2000 following many years as an executive with prominent commercial real estate companies. Her firm provides transactional representation, brokerage and consulting services for corporate users of properties in greater Washington, D.C., in addition to representing clients on an international basis. In 2003, her company was selected as the Washington, D.C. regional affiliate for ITRA Global. She was elected to the board of directors in 2004.

Anderson lease transactions were selected by the Washington Business Journal in 2015 and 2010 in the category of largest office leases. She was highlighted in the Mid-Atlantic Real Estate Journal (MAREJ) as one of the "Best of 2015, 2011 and 2010" in other categories. In 2013, she was chosen one of the "Top Real Estate Professionals" in the region by a readership poll organized by SmartCEO magazine. She was named an "Industry Legend" in 2013 by ALM's Real Estate Forum, the leading national publication of the commercial real estate industry, in its 20th Anniversary Special Edition. Anderson was chosen a "Virginia Woman of Influence" for 2014 by Virginia Lawyers Media, which annually recognizes the outstanding efforts of women in all fields, including law, business, health care and education. She has also served on the board for several organizations that work to improve the lives of at risk children.
