

We are looking for an experienced Baker to join our team!

Tonglen Lake Lodge is small, upscale lodge located just minutes away from Denali National Park. It is a seasonally run operation (mid-May through mid-September) of 10 guest cabins and 5 guest rooms. Breakfast in the Artisan Café is included in a guest's stay, and an evening drink and appetizer service is also available. The café and grounds are open to the public and a focal point for local artisans, community members, performers and private events. Staff includes 10-15 people.

Duties include:

- Opening & starting up kitchen
- Baking daily for breakfast service, including but not limited to scones, muffins, quiche & specials.
- Creating other breakfast options including hot cereal combinations, cold cereal options, preserves, etc.
- Baking daily to support evening service, including bread for small plates and to-go lunches
- Mixing and baking regularly as needed granola, cookies, brownies and bars, etc.
- Prepping dry ingredients, add ins, for following days' baking
- Baking desserts for special events as needed (pies, cakes, bars, tarts, etc.)
- Preparing and serving breakfast to pre-arranged early departures
- Making espresso drinks, plating dishes and supporting front of the house operations as needed during hours of service
- Doing dishes as part of a kitchen-wide collaborative effort
- Keeping menu board current and assisting front of the house staff in understanding daily options and ingredients
- Cleaning work spaces and maintaining utmost cleanliness in all realms
- Leading as a model in hygiene in the kitchen
- Providing exceptional front of house customer service as needed and being generally familiar with all cafe operations

Requirements:

- Ability to be a "morning person"
- Interest in baking and preparing high quality foods in small batches
- Positive attitude and interest in contributing talents and energy toward the efforts at Tonglen Lake
- Ability to interact respectfully with coworkers in a lighthearted, but hard-working atmosphere
- Ability to be flexible
- Alaska Food Worker's Card (available online)

Desired Skills and Experience:

- Previous commercial bakery and/or kitchen experience desired
- Knowledge and experience in artisan breads desired
- The ability to work both independently, and as part of a team
