8.G Applying the Pythagorean Theorem in a mathematical context

Task

Three right triangles surround a shaded triangle; together they form a rectangle measuring 12 units by 14 units. The figure below shows some of the dimensions but is not drawn to scale.

Is the shaded triangle a right triangle? Provide a proof for your answer.