K.MD Which is heavier?

Task

Students will need various items to compare weights, a balance scale, and a recording sheet with four sections with enough space for a small drawing. The students work in pairs. They choose two items to compare weights. Using the balance scale, they put one item on each side of the balance scale. Then they draw the two items and circle the one that is heavier. They continue same steps with different pairs of items.
K.MD Which is heavier?