Message Delivery to Congress

Rally Congress integrates with lawmakers' constituent web forms, delivering your supporters' messages in the preferred electronic format for each office.

Designed to Share and Convert

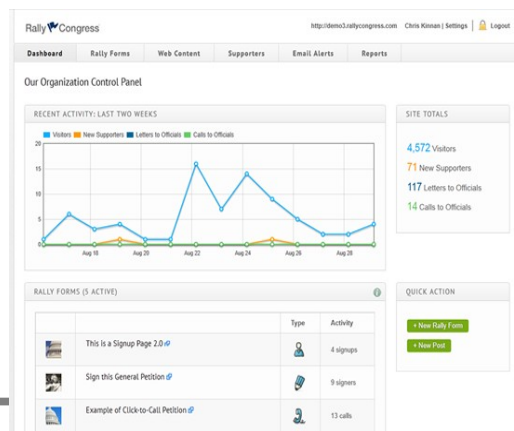

Advocacy managers can create or edit calls-to-action in seconds. All forms are designed to spur visitors to action, and are designed to share with social networks like Facebook and Twitter.

Powerful Reports

Rally Congress tracks inbound marketing campaigns, call-to-action conversion rates, and number of messages received by each Member of Congress.
