

EAT DRINK
INDY

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS (FAQS)

- Where are we meeting?
 - Exploring Virginia Ave: Historical Calvin Fletcher marker at the corner of East St & Virginia Ave
 - Fletcher Place Foodie: Outside of Amelia's Bakery on Virginia Ave.
 - Indy Cultural Trail Bicycle: Indy City Market, 222. E. Market St
- Where should I park? There is plenty of street parking surrounding each of the tour's starting locations. There are also 2 Pacers Bikeshare stations - feel free to ride over!
- What time? All tours start at 1:00 pm, please be on time!
- Where are we going? You will be happy and full when it's all said and done.
 - Exploring Virginia Ave: Rook, Milktooth, Thunderbird, Litterally Divine, Three Carrots, 12.05, Tortas, Amelia's
 - Fletcher Place Foodie: Bluebeard, 12.05, Milktooth, Rook, Tortas
 - Biking Tour: Circle City Sweets, Wildwood, Chilly Water Brewing, Cafe Patachou, Union 50, Saffron Cafe
- Should I bring cash for tips? No. Ticket price includes food, gratuity, paying the tour guide and anything more goes toward the on-going sustaining efforts of Indianapolis Cultural Trail, Inc. If you want to buy a drink (beer, wine, cocktails, soda, etc.) you'll need to have money for that.
- What's included in the tour? At each restaurant, you will get an appetizer size tasting and water. You'll also hear more about the Indianapolis Cultural Trail, learn the inside scoop on the restaurants and food from Jolene, and potentially meet the owners or Chefs.
- Let's talk about the weather: We'll give you a heads up in your pre-tour email but please double check before you leave the house and come prepared. The tour is rain or shine!
- What should I bring for a bike tour? We will be providing bikes. You are welcome to bring your own, however, it won't change the cost of the tour. We recommend bringing a bottle of water as we will be biking ~6 miles. Let us know if you need a helmet.
- Social Media: This is the Indy Cultural Trail Food Tour.
 - Instagram @IndyCulturalTrail
 - Twitter @INCulturalTrail
 - #CulturalTrailFoodTour
 - #ICTFoodTour