

Morris Leonard, Jr

July 3, 1922 - January 23, 2019

Morris Leonard, Jr. age 96, passed away Wednesday, January 23, 2019 in Medford , Oregon where he was born. Morris graduated from Oregon State University in mechanical engineering. He attended Annapolis before serving in World War 2 for 4 years as a lieutenant on a destroyer in the Pacific Ocean. Morris was active in the First Presbyterian Church & was a long time member of the Rotary & Elks Clubs. For 40 years, he worked in the family business, Leonard Electric. Morris is survived by his wife, Joan, of 70 years; 2 daughters, Joanie Brown of Medford (husband Rob), Star Leonard-Fleckman of Seattle, WA (husband Philip Fleckman); 4 grandchildren & 5 great grand children. He was preceded in death by his father, Morris Leonard Sr, his mother, Florence Leonard & his sister, Jean Rector, of Medford. A memorial in his honor will be held on February 23, 2019 at The First Presbyterian Church at 85 S. Holly St, in downtown Medford at 2:00 pm. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to The First Presbyterian Church's food bank which serves the homeless in Medford.