IQE is partnering with GreatSchools, a national non-profit that features a website where millions of families find information about their local schools, like yours.

In fact, last year 668,000 unique visitors viewed Indiana school profiles and thousands posted reviews. GreatSchools' dedication to provide parents with the information they need to make educated choices about schools for their children is why we are partnering with them.

GreatSchools official school profiles.

Whether you represent a traditional public, public charter or private school this free tool is an easy way to make your school stand out and manage its online reputation! Many schools across the state have already taken advantage of this opportunity.

If you are a principal or authorized school official, we want you to ensure your school's programs and information are showcased accurately on GreatSchools, so you can make the most out of this free way to reach parents.

If that's not enough of a reason to get up and running on GreatSchools, then here are a few more reasons to sign up:

- Highlight your school's unique qualities and strengths
- Add photos and videos that bring your school profile to life
- Ask your parents and staff to post reviews about your school
- Update school contact information and link your profile to your existing website so parents know who to contact with questions
