THE SUMMER “I’M BORED!” LIST

Here’s a great list of fun and faith-forming activities with minimal set-up or parent perspiration! Try to do something from each category each day.

Beauty-creating
Look for ways to be creative.
Make your own movie, write your first novel, or paint a masterpiece. Let your creative juices flow!

Service-working
Care for the needs of someone else.
Help someone out or write an encouraging note. Find a way to bless someone’s day.

Order-Discovering
Restore order to something around you.
Make your bed, clean the garage, or complete a puzzle. Make the world more orderly!

Community-building
Look for ways to be creative.
Play with someone and make a new friend. Share a kind word and get to know your neighbors.

Creation-enjoying
Enjoy the world God made.
Go outside and delight in God’s creation. Fly a kite, take a walk, or nap in the grass.

Image-reflecting
Take care of your body as God’s image bearer.
Do something to stay healthy and strong like take a walk, swim, or ride your bike.

God-worshipping
Idolatry Discerning.
Spend time talking with God in prayer and listening to what He has to say in the Bible.

Justice-seeking
Learn about people in other places.
Pick a country and pray for what is going on in that part of the world.

Earth-keeping
Care for the world.
Spend time pulling weeds, composting, picking up trash, or taking out the recycling.
