LETTRES DE LA MERE MARIE DE L'INCARNATION, PREMIERE SUPÉRIEURE des Ursulines de la Nouvelle France. A Paris, chez Louys Billaine. 1681. 4o. MARIE DE L'INCARNATION. 1681.

These letters, which are well written and worthy of the great reputation of this admirable woman for holiness, talent, and ability in all kinds of affairs, and especially in spiritual life, contain many historical facts which happened during the thirty-two years which she lived in Canada, where she landed in 1640.

HISTOIRE DE LA CONQUETE DE LA FLORIDE PAR UN GENTILHOMME DE la Ville d'Elvas, traduite en François par M. Citry de la Guette. Paris. 1685. CITRY DE LA GUETTE. 1685.

This work contains about the same as that of Garcilasso de la Vega, mentioned above, and is not less esteemed. The translation is much esteemed.

VOYAGE ET DÉCOUVERTE DE QUELQUE PAYS ET NATIONS DE L'AMÉRIQUE Septentrionale. MARQUETTE. 1687.

This is the Jesuit Father Marquette's journal of his voyage down the Mississippi, when he discovered that great river with the Sieur Joliet, in 1673. It is to be found in a Recueil des Voyages de M. Thevenot dédié au Roy, & imprimé à Paris chez Thomas Moette, rue de la vieille Bouclerie à S. Michel. 1681. 4o.

DESCRIPTION DE LA LOUISIANE NOUVELLEMENT DECOUVERTE AU SUD-ouest de la N. France, par ordre du Roy, avec la Carte du Pays: Les Mœurs & la Maniere de vivre des Sauvages. Dédicée a sa majesté par le R. P. Louis Hennepin, Missionnaire Recollet & Notaire Apostolique. A Paris chez Amable Auroy, rue S. Jacques à l'Image S. Jérôme. 1683. 12o. HENNEPIN. 1683, 1687, 1698.

Father Hennepin had been greatly attached to M. de la Sale, and followed him to the Illinois, whence that voyager sent him with the Sieur Dacan to ascend the Mississippi. This voyage he here describes. The title of the work is not just; for the country discovered, by the Recollect and the Sieur Dacan ascending the river from the Illinois to Sault St. Anthony, is
