

- when restored to France. The king sends de Fontena there; what he did, v., p. 113; intentions of Court and Bishop of Quebec, 156-7. The Bostonians ravage the coast, 157; Governor Dudley resolves to expel French from Acadia, 191; Queen Anne resolved to have Acadia at any cost, 201; more neglected than ever by the French, ib.; De Subercase proposes a firm settlement there. English profit by fisheries there, 202. Acadia again threatened. De Subercase draws buccaneers there, 225; English bent on reducing it, 226; settlers ill disposed to Subercase, 228; condition of the province after the fall of Port Royal, 233; disposition of the French there, 235; unavailing efforts to recover Acadia, 253-4; ceded in perpetuity to the English Crown; why the English Court persisted as to this cession, 266; its terms, 267; English offer favorable conditions to French settlers to retain them, 296-7; their fate, ib., n.
- ACADIANS (FRENCH)—Number included in surrender of Port Royal, v., p. 233, n.; terms, ib.; Nicholson prevents their going to Cape Breton, ib.; English threat to give them up to Indians, 234.
- ACADIANS (INDIANS)—Lescarbot and Biart on; attached to France, i., p. 264-5. See GASPESIANS, MICMAKS, SOURIQUOIS, etc.
- ACAPULCO—Pretended northern voyage from, to Dublin, i., p. 51.
- ACOSTA, JOSEPH DE, Spanish Jesuit—Note on his Historia Natural, i., p. 75.
- ACUNHA, TRISTAN D'—Discoveries of, i., p. 26.
- ACUNA, CHRISTOPHER DE—Spanish Jesuit, explores and describes Amazon, i., p. 55.
- ADAES—Texas Indians, mission among, vi., p. 24, n.
- ADARIO—La Hontan's name for KONDARONK, or THE RAT, which see.
- ADOPTION among Indians, iii., p. 16.
- ADULTERY—How punished by Sioux, iii., p. 32.
- AGARIATA—Mohawk hung, iii., p. 88, n.
- AGNIEGUE—Mohawks, ii., p. 190, n.
- AGNIER, an Iroquois canton, see MOHAWK.
- AGNIER, a Mohawk town, iv., p. 303.
- AGONONSSIONI, real name of the Iroquois, ii., p. 189, n.; for other forms, ib.
- A GRESKOUÉ, or ARESKOY—God of Hurons and Iroquois, ii., pp. 109, 143; Jogues refuses meats offered to, 151; his worship abolished, iii., p. 157.
- AHASISTARI, EUSTACE, chief of the Attin-guenongnahak Hurons; conversion, ii., p. 134; baptism, 136; address to his braves, 136; burnt by Mohawks, 147.
- AHLITES, branch of Texas Indians, iv., p. 80, n.
- AHWENDOE (St. JOSEPH'S)—Now Charity Island, ii., p. 226, n.
- AIGRON—Captain of the Belle, one of La Sale's storeships, iv., p. 64; refuses to take a pilot, and loses his vessel, p. 69; suspected of doing it intentionally, ib., n.; de Beaujeu takes him on board his ship to screen him from punishment, 72.
- AIGUEFORT, English post, Newfoundland, taken by De Brouillan, v., p. 37.
- AIGUEMORTE, LIEUT., killed near Schenectady, iii., p. 89, n.
- AIGUILLON, DUCHESS D'—Niece of Cardinal Richelieu, foundress of the Hospital Nuns, Quebec, ii., p. 100.
- AILLEBOUT, LOUIS D', Seigneur de Coulonges, brings over settlers for Montreal, ii., p. 130; Governor-General, 203; character, 205; governor of Montreal not as Charlevoix states, of Three Rivers, 206, n.; negotiations with New England, 216; receives fugitive Hurons at Quebec, 235; asked to build prison for Indian drunkards, 243; succeeded by de Lauson, 244; arrests Iroquois murderers, iii., p. 14; makes commercial treaty with Dutch, p. 15, n.; dies at Montreal, 33, n.
- AILLEBOUT, MADAME (BARBARA DE BOULOGNE)—Wife of preceding, services of, ii., p. 205, n.
- AILLEBOUT, SIEUR D'—Distinguished at capture of St. John, iv., p. 214; v., p. 213.
- AILLEBOUT, D'ARGENTEUIL. See ARGENTEUIL, D'.
- AILLEBOUT DE MANTET. See MANTET (MANTET).
- AILLEBOUT DES MUSSEAUX, see MUSSEAUX.
- AIRE, D', see HERE, D'.
- AKANSAS (AKANSEA, AKAMSCA)—Louisiana Indians, visited by Marquette, iii., p.