

CÉNIS, (continued.)

- Joutel from going to Illinois, but give him guides, 107; give guides to St. Denys, vi., p. 20; Spanish among, 32; aid St. Denys against Natchez, 118; see ASSINAIS.
- CEYLON, discovered by Almeyda, i., p. 26.
- CHABANEL, F. NATALIS, Jesuit, sketch of, ii., p. 231, n.; ordered to leave Huron town of St. John, ii., p. 230; disappears, conjectures as to his fate, ib.; killed by Louis Honareenhax, 231, n.
- CHABOT, PHILIP DE, Count de Buzensais et de Chargni, Seigneur de Brion, Admiral of France, induces Francis I. to continue American exploration and introduces Cartier to him, i., p. 36, 111; commissions Cartier, i., p. 36.
- CHAOTCHOUMAS, (Red Crabs) Louisiana tribe, vi., p. 39, n.
- CHAGOUAMIGON, or ST. MICHAEL'S ISLAND, in Lake Superior, iii., p. 49; situation, ib., n.; Hurons at, ii., p. 271, n.; F. Mesnard, as Charlevoix supposes, invited there by Hurons, iii., p. 49; Allouez at, iii., p. 101; concourse of Indians at that island, what F. Allouez does there, ib.; F. Nicolas at, 119; le Sueur sent to found establishment at, iv., p. 242.
- CHAGRES RIVER discovered, i., p. 29.
- CHALLONS, J. B. DE SAINT OURS DES, commands a party against English, v., p. 204; commands a company in de Ramezay's expedition, 219; detached on a scout, 220.
- CHAISE, MR. DE LA, Commissary sent to Louisiana, vi., p. 69, n.
- CHAISE F. FRANCIS DE LA, confessor to the King, liquor question referred to, his opinion, iii., p. 196.
- CHALEURS BAY, discovered and named by Cartier, i., p. 37, 112, n.; called Baye des Espagnols, 113.
- CHALLUS, NICHOLAS, notice of Florida tract by, in Benzoni's Novæ Novi Orbis, i., p. 70.
- CHAMAT, or CHAMOT, French officer killed by Mohawks, iii., p. 87.
- CHAMBAUTS, SEUR DES, King's attorney at Montreal, commands Montreal militia on Frontenac's expedition, v., p. 13.
- CHAMBLY, CAPT. JAMES DE, of the Carignan Salieres regiment, builds Fort Chambly, iii., p. 83; commands rear of Tracy's army, 90; grant to 112, n.; commandant in Acadia, 187; besieged and wounded by Dutch at Pentagoët, 188; his men surrender, ib.; re-appointed Governor, 210; Governor of Grenada, 211.
- CHAMBLY, SEUR HERTEL DE, killed on Haverhill expedition, v., p. 207.
- CHAMBLY, Fort St. Louis, or Chambly, built at, iii., p. 83; advantage of, ib.; Courcelle at, 89; du Plessis besieged by Mohawks and Mohegans, at, 298; result of Dutch Mohawk irruption at, iv. p. 19; English Mohegan ravages near, 193, n.; de Valrenes sent to relieve, p. 203; fortified against Iroquois, 236; Desbergères in command, ib., n.; de Vaudreuil's army camps at, v., p. 220; called Fort Ponchartrain, ib. n; Vaudreuil encamps at, 146.
- CHAMBLY RAPIDS, Champlain at, ii., p. 12;
- CHAMPFLOURS, MR. DE, Governor of Three Rivers, obtains Iroquois prisoners, ii., p. 175; they propose peace to, ib., informs de Montmagny ib.; at public audience of Iroquois deputies, 178.
- CHAMPIGNY, NOROY, JOHN BOCHART, SEIGNEUR DE, Intendant of New France, sketch of, ii., p. 282, n.; related to Lauson, ib.; precedes Denonville, 276, 282; seizes Iroquois, 282, n.; evacuates and destroys Catarocouy, iv., p. 32; opinion as to, 34-5; starts for Quebec to meet Phips, 153; concurs with Frontenac as to du Tast, 201; on liquor question, 232; opposes restoration of Fort Frontenac, 265; letter to Ponchartrain, 266; on Placentia, 274; goes to Montreal on Iroquois expedition, v., p. 12; opinion as to advanced posts, 65; consequences of following his advice, 67; aspires to be Governor-General, 96; sends Vincelotte to France, ib., n.; at last assembly for general peace, v., p. 149; smokes the calumet, 152; returns to France, 156; succeeded by Beauharnois, 156, n., 282, n.
- CHAMPIGNY, MADAME DE, wife of preceding, at obsequies of The Rat, v., p. 147.
- CHAMPLAIN, SAMUEL DE, navy captain, born at Brouage, ii., p. 88, n.; fought for Henry IV. during civil war, ib.; mistake of as to Cartier, ib.; his voyage to Mexico, i., p. 246, n.; his works, i., p. 75-76;