

- GANABARA, Indian name for Rio Janeiro, i., p. 42.
- GANDAGAN, Seneca town, iii., p. 12.
- GANDAHOUAGUÉ, Mohawk town, position of, ii., p. 146, n.; vi., p. 125; Father Jognes killed there, ii., p. 146, n.; Catherine Tegalkonita born there, iv., p. 284; visited by Bruyas, iii., p. 109, n.; mission established there by F. Lamberville, iv., p. 285; F. Pierron labors at aided by Garakonthié, iii., p. 157; various forms of the name, ii., p. 146, n.
- GANDASETIAGON, Iroquois town on Quinte Bay, also Gandatsetiagon, iii., p. 110, n.
- GANERASKÉ, Cayuga town on Quinte Bay, iii., p. 110, n.
- GANEYOUSSÉ, Iroquois seized at, iii., p. 276, n.
- GANNEAKTENA, CATHARINE, foundress of La Prairie, an Erie, ii., p. 266, n, iii., p. 191.
- GANNENTAHA, Lake in Onondaga canton, salt springs on, ii., p. 189.
- GANNES, LOUIS DE, SIEUR DE FALAISE, arrives at Naxoat from Quebec, v., p. 32; distinguished at defence of Naxoat, p. 31-2, at Port Royal, 227, n.; account of defence of, ib.
- GANNEYOUSSES, Belmont's term for Sault St. Louis Iroquois, iv., p. 193, n.
- GANNAGWAEL, Great She Bear, name of Mohawks as a tribe, ii., p. 145.
- GANNOGARAE, see CHINOSHAGEH.
- GANNOUNATA, see DYUDOOSOT.
- GARAKONTHIÉ, DANIEL, Onondaga chief, meets Father le Moyne, iii., p. 41; his character, love for French, services he renders them. Refined policy and wide caution of this chief, 42; spokesman of delegation sent to Governor General, 44; prudence as to events on voyage, ib.; reception at Montreal and Quebec, ib.; succeeds in liberating all the French prisoners, 52; renewed labors for peace and to deliver prisoners, 70; meets de Tracy at Quebec, 85; his reception, 86; bewails death of Father le Moyne, 85; apostrophe of, ib., n.; retains F. Garnier at Onondaga and builds him a cabin and a chapel, 109; brings two missionaries from Quebec, ib.; reproaches Ottawas for their shameful treatment of missionaries; baptized by bishop, the Gov. Gen. and Intendant's daughter being sponsors, iii., p. 152; aids F. Pierron at Gandaouagué, p. 157; unsuccessful attempt to make the Oneidas more docile to missionary, 158; death of, iii., p. 196, n.; his grandson taken, v., p. 11, n.
- GARAKONTHIÉ, II.,—brother of preceding, deputed to treat of peace, iii., p. 254; speaks well, ib.; moderation of the Onondagas to Lamberville ascribed to him, 278; prevents violent measures in his canton, 292; Frontenac depends much on him, iv., p. 52; continues to serve the French; zeal for religion; why he remained in his canton, 246; send belts to Frontenac, 250; receives presents from him, ib.; his death, v., p. 155; his nephew offers to succeed him as correspondent of the French and is accepted, ib.
- GARANGOUS, MARGARET, Iroquois woman, courage and martyrdom, iv., p. 301.
- GARCIA, FATHER GREGORIO, Spanish Dominican, his Origin de los Indios noticed, i., p. 92.
- GARDEUR DE REPENTIGNY, MARY M. LE, marries John P. Godefroy, ii., p. 216, n.
- GARDEUR, SIEUR DE TILLY LE, commands Indians in Frontenac's Iroquois expedition, v., p. 12; confusion as to, p. 12, n.; see BEAUVAIS, RENÉ LE GARDEUR DE.
- GARIOYE, Iroquois of Sault St. Louis, his son an envoy, iv., p. 249, n.
- GARISTATS and GANNAGENROGEN, Mohawk deserters, inform Senecas of Denonville's plans, iii., p. 286, n.
- GARGOT, SIEUR, LOUIS XIV. grants Placentia with title of Governor to, obstacles in taking possession, iii., p. 146.
- GARISTARSIA, (Iron) Iroquois defeated and killed by Sillery Algonquins, iii., p. 64.
- GARNIER, FATHER CHARLES, Jesuit, sketch of, ii., p. 230; Huron name Ouracha, 231, n.; visits several Indian tribes, ii., p. 94; nobly sacrifices his life for his flock and is killed by Iroquois, 229.
- GARNIER, FATHER JULIAN, Jesuit, notice of, iii., p. 109, n.; missionary to the Iroquois, iii., p. 109; La Sale prejudiced against, iii., p. 203, n.; retained at Onondaga by Garakonthié, who builds him a cabin and chapel, ib.; sent to Senecas in 1702, v., p. 155, n.
- GARREAU, FATHER LEONARD, Jesuit, baffles plot at St. Matthew's, ii., p. 232; starts