

- remonstrates against occupation of St. Joseph's Bay, 42, n.; calls on Governor of St. Joseph's for aid, 44; surrenders to de Serigny, 45; embarks for Havana, ib.; restored to command of Pensacola, 49; hearing of approach of a French squadron, wishes to burn his fort and retire to Santa Rosa Island, 54; summoned to surrender, 58; forced by officers to do so, ib.; taken to France, 44, n.
- MATAN, Magellan killed at, i., p. 32.
- MATANE RIVER, Canada, situation and advantages of, iv., p. 17; v., p. 74; Rivierin's establishment at, ib.; English fleet seen at, 246.
- MATANZAS INLET, massacre of French probably at, i., p. 214.
- MATAOUANDO, (MADOCKAWANDO,) Malecite chief, negotiates with Governor of New England, iv., p. 255; Villieu and Thury induce him to desist, 256; distinguished on Villieu's expedition against the English, ib.; St. Castin marries daughter of, 211.
- MATHIEU, (MATTHEW,) CAPTAIN, English hostage during negotiations at Port Royal, v., p. 230.
- MAUSUMAX, visited by Father de Angelis, i., p. 53; opinions as to, 60.
- MATTHEWS, CAPTAIN, of the Chester, v., p. 227, n.
- MAUBEC, an Abbey in France, conferred on the Bishopric and Chapter of Quebec, iii., p. 122.
- MAUBILE, the Mauvilla of Garcilasso, river in Louisiana, situation, v., p. 119; battle fought here between Spaniards and Indians, ib., n.; to be taken possession of, though not essential, 127; settlement on, vi., p. 14; Indians settle there, 15; fort built by Vigne Voisin, 15, n.; soil poor, 16; Spaniards enter and capture convoy on, 50; but are defeated, ib.; Chateaugué resumes command at, 65; d'Artauguettes commandant at, 80; projected massacre of French at, 80, 91; French killed near, 89-90; Perrier convenes Choctaws at, 103.
- MAUFILS, PETER, student at Quebec, mortally wounded at siege, iv., p. 182.
- MAUGRAS, SIEUR, joins Hertel with five Algonquins and returns, iv., p. 132.
- MAURE or MAUZE, M., member of the Council, ii., p. 216.
- MAUREPAS, MR. DE, Perrier de Salvette's letter to, vi., p. 106.
- MAURICE OF NASSAU, Prince, sends out exploring expedition, i., p. 46.
- MAURICE ISLAND, i., p. 47.
- MAURICE VON NASSAU'S LAND, i., p. 52.
- MAY RIVER, now St. John's, Florida, by whom so named, i., p. 42, 136; Ribaut takes possession, and plants French arms, ib.; Laudonniere well received, i., p. 42, 149; kind of worship paid by Indians to French arms, 149; beauty of country, 150; Laudonniere builds Fort Caroline there, i., p. 42; Ribaut tries to reach, p. 209; de Gourgues at, 227.
- MAYA, DIEGO DE, a Spanish captain, opposes attack on Fort Caroline, i., p. 197; sinks a French vessel, 203.
- MEAUPOU, CHEVALIER DE, commanding the Seine, attacked by Virginia fleet, in spite of bravery forced to surrender, v., p. 174.
- MECHASSIPI, see MICISSIPI.
- MECHIN, CAPTAIN, commanding the Count de Toulouse, vi., p. 44; takes Governor of Pensacola and his officers to Havana, 45; his vessel seized there, 46.
- MECHOACAN, discovered by Parillas, i., p. 33.
- MEDICINE MEN, on St. Lawrence, ii., p. 13; among Hurons, p. 79; see AUTMOINS, IONAS, OSTEMOY, PILOTOIS.
- MEDORTECK, Abénaquis of, join in letter to Governor of Mass., v., p. 273, n.
- MEDRANO, JUAN VELEZ DE, Spanish captain, distinguished at capture of Fort Caroline, i., p. 208; at Cañaverall, p. 222.
- MEESUCONTEE, v., p. 167, n.
- MEGAPOLENSIS, REV. DR. JOHANNES, Dutch minister at New Amsterdam, F. Jogues writes to, ii., p. 187; Le Moyne announces discovery of salt springs to, iii., p. 15, n.
- MELIAPOR, Vasco de Gama at, i., 24; body of St. Thomas found at, 33.
- MELINDA discovered, i., p. 20.
- MEMBRÉ, see MAMBRÉ.
- MENADOU or PANADOU BAY, Cape Breton, v., p. 284.
- MENANE ISLAND, near Acadia, what recommends it, i., p. 250.
- MENDAÑA, ALVARO DE, Spaniard, discovers Solomon's Islands, i., p. 43; Marquesas Islands, 47.