

- Tonti, 209; lost in woods and killed by Kikapoos, 212, 186; v., p. 132; eulogium on, ib.; place of death, vi., p. 132, n.
- RICARD, storekeeper at Natchez, escapes the massacre and reports to Ferrier, vi., p. 89, n.
- RICHARD, PHILIP, see PHILLIPPS, RICHARD.
- RICHARD, a Frenchman, robbed and murdered by Natchez, vi., p. 28.
- RICHARVILLE, DROUET DE, see DROUET.
- RICHEBOURG, CAPTAIN DE, arrives, vi., p. 25; marches against Natchez, 28; at siege of Pensacola, 43, n.; prisoners sent to Havana in charge of, 45, n.; imprisoned there, 46, n.
- RICHELET, MR., translates La Florida del Ynca, i., p. 73.
- RICHELIEU, CARDINAL DE, establishes Company of New France, ii., p. 39; at its head, 43; controls affairs of Canada as Grand Master, Chief and Superintendent Gen. of the Navigation and Commerce of France, 45; orders Chateaufort to press restoration of Canada, 58; orders Razilli to get ready to retake it, ib.; his niece founds the Hôtel Dieu, Quebec, p. 100.
- RICHELIEU, or SOREL RIVER, called also RIVER OF THE IROQUOIS.
- RICHELIEU, FORT, see FORT RICHELIEU.
- RIGOLET, outlet of Onondaga Lake, Onondagas neglect to hold, v., p. 15.
- RIO JANEIRO, discovered, i., p. 30; called Ganabara by natives, 42.
- RIO DEL NORTE, or COLORADO, discovered by Oñate, i., p. 51; St. Denys at, vi., p. 20-23.
- RIO DEL ORO, Africa, i., p. 15; de Gourgues makes it his rendezvous, p. 225.
- RIO PERDIDO, Bienville at, vi., p. 56.
- RIO DE LA PLATA discovered, i., p. 30; entered by Sebastian Cabot, 34.
- RIO DE LA SANTA CRUZ, now Edisto, or the Broad, i., p. 136, n.
- RIO DE SOLIS, i., pp. 30, 34.
- RIGUERONON, Iroquois name for the Eries, ii., p. 266, n.
- RISINGH, JOHN, Governor of New Sweden, surrenders to Dutch, i., p. 56.
- RITER, SERGEANT, killed by Chickasaws, vi., p. 70, n.
- RIVAU, (DURIVAUT,) CHEVALIER AMATOR HUET, SEIGNEUR DU, said to have accompanied Montortier and Desnos, iii., p. 255.
- RIVAUX, HENAUPT DES, mentioned as Governor of Montreal, iii., p. 255, n.
- RIVERIN, SIEUR DENNIS, projects sedentary fisheries on the St. Lawrence at Mont Louys, v., p. 74; his failures, 75, 112.
- RIVER OF DOLPHINS, i., p. 135; called St. Augustine, by Menendez, 188.
- RIVER OF THE IROQUOIS, now SOREL, ii., p. 12.
- RIVIERE DU LIEVRE, iv., p. 218.
- RIVIERE VERTE, see BLUE EARTH RIVER.
- ROANOKE ISLAND settled, i., p. 45.
- ROBBE AND LA MARTINIÈRE, errors of, i., p. 68.
- ROBERT, MR., Counsellor of State, appointed first Intendant of New France, but never came, iii., p. 67.
- ROBERVAL, JOHN FRANCIS DE LA ROQUE, SIEUR DE, called by Francis I. le Petit Roi de Vimeu, i., p. 129; obtains commission to continue American exploration, ib.; extent of grant, ib.; sends out Cartier in 1541, ib., 130, n.; followed in 1542, ib.; Cartier builds a fort on St. Lawrence, ib.; settles on Cape Breton, i., p. 39, 130, but see note; sends Alphonse to seek western passage to China, 130; detained in France by war, 131; returns with his brother, 131; both lost at sea, ib.; according to Thevet he was killed in Paris, 131, n.
- ROBEYRE, (RABEYRE, RABERRE, ROBESLE, L'ARABELLE,) LIEUT. DE LA, wounded and taken by Iroquois in Fort Roland, Montreal Island, iv., p. 30.
- ROBINEAU, PETER, member of Company of a Hundred Associates, ii., p. 169.
- ROBINEAU, RENÉ. See BERANCOURT, BARON DE.
- ROBINEAU, PETER. See PORTNEUF.
- ROBINEAU, DANIEL. See NEUVILLETTE.
- ROBINEAU. See VILLEBON, MENNEVAL.
- ROCHE, TROILUS DE MESGOUAT, MARQUIS DE LA, Henry III. and IV. renew Roberval's grant to, i., p. 48, 241; lands a party on Sable Island, 48, 243; explores Acadian coast, 243; misfortunes and death, 244; errors as to his imprisonment, 244, n.
- ROCHE ALLARD, COUNTESS DE, daughter of Francis Mary Perrot, iv., p. 163.
- ROCHE DE JACQUES CARTIER, i., p. 120.