

- WA-BA-NAW, a Menomonee, 253.
Wa-ba-shaw, or The Falling Leaf, 138, 143, 144, 248, 264; location of village, 144, 147.
Wadge-hut-ta-kaw, or One-Eyed De Kau-ray, 156, 295-97.
Wakh-pa-koo-tay's regrets at waste of whisky, 123-25.
Wa-man-doo-s-ga-ra-ha, a bad Indian, 127, 143.
Wa-pel-lo, a Sauk chief, mentioned, 305.
Warner, E., mentioned, 278.
Warner, Theo., mentioned, 282.
War relics and curiosities, 29, 168.
Washburn, Hon. C. C., commended for congress by Gov. Harvey, 58.
Wau-ba-na-kees, or New York Indians, near Green Bay, 182.
Wau-kon Haw-kaw, or Washington De Kau-ray, 156, 297, 307.
Way-we-te-go-che, Indian name for Frenchmen, 411.
Wes, French fort on the Wabash, 114, 118.
We Kau, or the Sun, engaged in murder, 145-46, 179, 182, 184, 186, 199-202.
Welch, William, remarks on Gen. Dodge, 177.
Wells, Hon. Daniel Jr., furnishes his portrait, 28.
Western exploration, early scheme, note, 115-16.
West, —, early Milwaukee teacher, 336, 357.
West, G. M., work on Wisconsin, 171.
West Virginia, State, donor, 27.
Wheeler, A. C., writer on Milwaukee, 171.
Whisky, Indian love of, 99, 123-125, 384.
Whistler, Maj. Wm., noticed, 178, 185, 194, 202.
White, —, in Black Hawk war, 259.
White Crow, a Winnebago guide to Gen. Dodge, 295.
White fish, Indians spearing, 159.
White War Eagle, a Winnebago Chief, 128, 153-56, 297.
White, William, early teacher, 332.
Whittlesey, Col. Charles, cited, 328.
Wide Mouth, a Chippewa chief, 129, 130, 139, 141, 400.
Wiggin, J. K., historical series, 166.
Wild cat banking, 272.
Williams, —, early miner, 318.
Williams, Rev. Eleazer, mentioned, 327, 354, 376.
Williamson, Mrs. E. M., donor, 29.
Wilson, Dr., of Sharon, efforts to save Gov. Harvey, 62.
Winnebago, Fort, 259, 260, 309, 330, 331, 353.
Winnebagoes (Puants), 90, 93, 103, 104, 113; originally from Mexico, 142; bravery and character, 142; mode of burying the dead, 99; 1811, at Tippecanoe battle, 96, 142, 143; 1813, at Thames battle, 96; levy tribute on Americans, 96; 1825, treaty at Prairie Du Chien, 123, 391; 1827, outbreak, 142-53, 156-58, 178-204; De Kau-ray's Indian honor, 154; 1828-29, a pretended gathering at Prairie Du Chien, 158; 1829, treaty at Prairie Du Chien, 153; 1832, join whites against the Sauks, 259, 306-309; provision for schools, 328; 1846, yet scattered in Wisconsin, 279-82; Four Legs, noticed, 96; Car-a-mau-nee, noticed, 181; De Kau-rays, noticed, 128, 153-56, 295-97.
Winter, J. W., donor, 29.
Wiota, or Hamilton's Diggings, 317.
Wisconsin Heights, battle, 260.
Wisconsin Historical Collections, cited, 111, 116, 118, 126, 144, 155.
Wisconsin, State, donor, 27, 108.
Wisconsin, meaning of the name, 351; early explorers and missionaries, 322; early trading posts, 323; 1710, De Louvigny's expedition, 78-85; 1728, De Lignery's expedition, 86-95; 1729, allied Indians defeat the Foxes, 104; 1730, March, Marin defeats the Foxes, 95-104; 1730, May, Du Bulsson's expedition, 106, 107; 1730, September, De Villiers defeats the Foxes, 107; 1732, Iroquois and Hurons against the Foxes, 120; 1735, De Noyelle's expedition, 120; 1741, Sauks and Foxes troublesome, 113-14, 120-21; 1746, supposed war with Foxes, 103; 1756-57, Sauks and Foxes in French war, 117; 1811, Winnebagoes at Tippecanoe, 96, 142, 143; 1813, Winnebagoes at Thames, 96; 1818, Col. Edward's notice, 158; 1825, treaty at Prairie Du Chien, 123, 391; 1826, Methode and family killed, 126-27; 1827, Winnebago out-break, 142-54, 156-58, 178-204; 1828-29, mythical incident, 158; 1829, treaty at Prairie Du Chien, 153; 1830, Sauks and