

432 Wisconsin Historical Collections

- Foxes attack Indians, 256-58; 1832, Sauk war, 259-64, 287-297, 300-304, 306-315; 1835-'36. public land sales, 373; 1836, population, 336; 1836, schools, 354; 1846, constitutional convention, 341, 359; 1848, school laws enacted, 343; early schools, 323-68; first settlers educated, 324; first schools in families, 324, 353; schools among Indians, 326, 354-56; military and post schools, 328, 353; early schools in the Lead Region, 333; first schools of Eastern settlers, 335; system of public schools, 337; State University, 345; graded schools, 345; academies and colleges, 346; early lumbering, 242-54, 273; field of historic culture, 9; historical writers, 171-72; encouragement to emigrants, 159-60.
- Wolcott, Dr. E. B., a vice president, 1861, 33.
- Woodman, Hon. Cyrus, a vice president, 1860-'61, 1867-68, 32, 33, vii, viii.
- Woodward, W. E., historical series, 26, 166.
- Wool, Gen., visits Green Bay, 1818, 158.
- Worthen, Prof. A. H., donor, 165.
- Worthington, Hon. D., member Executive Committee, 1864-68, 36-38, vii, viii; early teacher, 333.
- Wright, Hon. H. A., State Superintendent, 365; aided to re-organize the society, 15.
- Wynne's History of British Empire in America, cited, 81.
- Wynne, T. H., donor, 165.
- YELLOW (or Painted Rock) Creek, 126.
- Young, Austin, almost cannibalized, 254.
- Young, Hon. E. W., donor, 27.