

- Duerst, Miss Salome, pioneer Swiss immigrant, 352.
- Dufaut, Jos., fur-trade employee, 158.
- Dufaut, Louis, fur-trade employee, 158.
- Dufrene, Philip, fur-trade employee, 158.
- Duggan, Thomas, letter to Chew, 101.
- Dulude, Antoine, fur-trade employee, 158.
- Dunmore (Lord), governor of Virginia, 48.
- Dunn county, public lands in, 321.
- Dunn, Thomas, British paymaster, 50.
- Duplaine, Joseph, fur-trade employee, 160.
- Dupuis, Louis, fur-trade employee, 158.
- Durant, Bazil, fur-trade employee, 160.
- Durocher, André, fur-trade employee, 160.
- Durocher, John Baptiste, Indian trader, 78.
- Durrie, Daniel S., services as librarian, 12; his Public Domain, 322.
- Dutch Reformed church, 452.
- Dyde, John, fur-trade employee, 160.
- Dye, Elizabeth, marries James McCall, 171.
- EACKER, —, kills Philip Hamilton, 270.
- Early, Capt. Jacob M., in Black Hawk war, 242.
- Easton (Pa.), Swiss at, 345.
- Eaton, John H., secretary of war, 178, 292; letter to Wisconsin Indian commission, 172; letter from Hobbie, 206.
- Eau Plaine river, Winnebagoes on, 412.
- Ebert, Jacques, fur-trade employee, 160.
- Eccyer. See Ecuyer.
- Ecuyer, Madame —, Green Bay settler, 120.
- Education, early schools at La Pointe, 442-452; at Green Bay, 453-465; in Illinois, 230; Wisconsin's school lands, 321, 322; schools at New Glarus, 337, 344, 373, 374; Draper's services for Wisconsin schools, 12, 13, 20-22.
- Edwards, —, Michigan legislator, 181.
- Edwards, James G., Territorial printer, 384-388.
- Edwards, Ninian, governor of Illinois Territory, 138-151.
- Egger, F., pioneer Swiss immigrant, 381.
- Eickhoff, Anton, In der neuen Heimath, 301, 315, 326.
- Elberfeld (Germany), 315.
- Eldon (Iowa), 262.
- Elk Grove, in Black Hawk war, 232.
- Elk river, English fur trade on, 137.
- Ellice & Co., Robert, fur traders, 78.
- Elliott, —, English Indian leader, 147.
- Ellis, Albert G., on McCall's Journal, 177; early surveyor, 197, 202.
- Ellis, Dr. Edwin, on Wheeler's mission, 447-449.
- Elmer family, origin of name, 337.
- Elmer, F. Jenny, pioneer Swiss immigrant, 381.
- Ely, Richard T., Labor Movement, 307.
- "Empire," Hudson river steamer, 345.
- Encking, Charles L., on German immigration, 318.
- England, Richard, British officer, 99; letter from Charlton, 96; from Doyle, 97; from Wilkinson, 100.
- Elroy, fur trade near, 410.
- Episcopalians, mentioned by McCall, 180, 190.
- Erie canal, 2, 312.
- Ernst, —, early teacher, 374.
- Escabia Indians, 86.
- Escanaba (Mich.), origin of name, 391.
- Etter, John T., pastor of New Glarus, 372.
- Eustis, William, secretary of war, 267.
- Evangelical Association, 372, 373.
- Everest, Kate Asaphine, "How Wisconsin came by its large German element," 299-334.
- Everitt, Judge —, 179.
- Ewing, Col. W. L. D., in Black Hawk war, 249, 252, 254, 259.
- Exeter, Swiss at, 347, 364, 365.
- FAILLE, LOUIS, fur-trade employee, 160.
- Fairbanks, John H., fur-trade employee, 160.
- Fairfield (Iowa), Swiss in, 346.
- Fairveau, Simon, fur-trade employee, 160.
- Falls of St. Anthony, English fur trade at, 81, 87.
- Fallstraw, Jacob, fur-trade employee, 16.
- Farnham, R., fur trader, 159-161, 167, 169.
- Farnsworth, W., fur trader, 160, 458, 459; patron of Green Bay school, 465.
- Farwell, Leonard J., a founder of State Historical Society, 11; "booms" Madison, 14.
- Fauerbach, Peter, 252.
- Fearson, William, 295.
- Felix, Antoine, fur-trade employee, 160.
- Feltan, Augustin, blacksmith at Mackinaw, 61.
- Fennai, Le François, fur-trade employee, 160.