

Manner of cooking in vessels made from bark	42
Drunkenness is learned from the Europeans	44
Rites of sepulture	20
Whatever work there is, is placed upon the women	17
Description of the beaver	9
Peculiarities of the rivers	6
Description of New France, rivers	5
climate	6
nature of the soil	7
wild animals	7
Why the king of France was greatly respected	45
The Hurons celebrate the day of the Dead	25
Remarkable mortality among infants	17
why they bury the bodies near the road	21
A priest proves that there is hell fire	48
[53] The Iroquois conclude a war with the Montagnais
by single combat	28
Lake of the Iroquois	12
Kebec, the chief city of New France	6
The Great Beast, what it is	7
Manitou, the spirit of evil	46
Mississippi river	6
The Montagnais conclude a war by single combat	28
Two sources of disease	18
Festival of the Dead among the Hurons	25
Canadian manner of honoring the dead	25
Boats of the savages	6
The Neutral Nation	38
They revere a deity with no fixed form of worship	44
Innumerable pigeons	14
The armored fish	13
Fathers of the Society of Jesus are cruelly tortured	31
Religion of the Canadians	45
Network bound under the feet, to walk over the snow	8