

to their hearts, and that their hearts are speaking to God. As for us, without having solicited them, we are under the greatest obligations to them, as well as to the sweet charity of all our Fathers, and of all our Brethren of your Province, yea, even of all France, and especially to the love and remembrance your Reverence has for all your children at the Altar and in the Oratory. [313 i.e., 309] We all greet you with the utmost affection,—I very particularly, who will sign myself, with your permission, what I am from my heart,

My Reverend Father,

Your very humble and obedient servant in our Lord,

PAUL LE JEUNE.
