

Table of the Chapters contained in this Book.

R ELATION of what occurred in New France, in the year 1639.	page	I
Chapter I. Of the joy felt by New France at the Birth of Monseigneur the Dauphin, and of a council held by the Savages.		2
Chap. II. Of the Nuns recently arrived in New France, and of their occupation.		17
Chap. III. Of the favorable dispositions of the Savages towards the Faith.		37
Chap. IV. Of the Christians or baptized Savages in general.		52
Chap. V. Of the first Families that became Seden- tary.		63
Chap. VI. Of the Baptism of a young Algonquin man.		91
Chap. VII. Of the Conversion of a Captain and of his entire Family.		107
Chap. VII. [i.e., viii.] Of the Conversion and Bap- tism of a Sorcerer.		116
Chap. IX. Of the Seminary for the Savages.		130
Chap. X. Of the belief in superstitions, and of some customs of the Savages.		145
Chap. XI. Collection of various matters which could not be related in the previous Chapters.		158