

prayers and devotions,—seeing the combats and battles we have to give and sustain every day, in order to establish in this country a Sovereign other than he who, since all ages, has tyrannically usurped the empire of God and of JESUS CHRIST, for whose rights and glory may we all entirely devote ourselves. Amen.