

tism and is very well. I would have many other like acts to relate of our Neophytes, but I must avoid tediousness. Truly, God is good, and his Goodness has no bounds. The Scythians and the Tartars belong to him as well as the Greeks; I would that all tongues in heaven and on earth might bless him for the wonders that he has worked and is working every day before our eyes, in the midst of Barbarism. He who does not wonder at these Metamorphoses does not see them; or he who sees them, and does not wonder at them, has no heart,—not apprehending what it cost Jesus Christ to change the children of Satan into children of the great God.
