

France in October, 1645; and in the following year, at Paris, obtained a grant of a fief near Three Rivers, which, however, he sold to Le Neuf de la Poterie, three years later. He seems not to have returned to Canada.

15 (p. 273).—Concerning the Metaberoutin River, see vol. ii., note 52.

16 (p. 281).—This was probably the successor of the chief mentioned in vol. ix., note 18. Cf. vol. xii., note 31.

17 (p. 291).—Concerning Teswehat, see vol. viii., note 30.