

the Savages, I scarcely doubt that one day will be seen what I am going to remark.

First, I expect that Saint [210] Joseph will be peopled by Abnaquiois, by Bersiamites, by Savages from Tadoussac, by the Porcupine Tribe, by the Oupapinachiwekhi, and the Oumamiwekhi;<sup>9</sup> these are unimportant tribes in the Interior, who will rally about our Neophytes of Saint Joseph, and who will also, by degrees, call others. These Tribes have heard of Jesus Christ,—his Doctrine seems to them beautiful and desirable; the example of their fellow tribesmen who have become Christians, touches them powerfully; but the little assistance that we can give them, and the fury of the Hiroquois, hinder their coming to join us.

Secondly, the Attikamegues, and other Tribes of which I do not know the names, who are in the Interior, will settle at the Three Rivers; they would already have done so, but for the fear of their common enemy, the Hiroquois. They are good and docile peoples, very easily won to Jesus Christ.

In the third place, the Algonquins,—as well those of the Island as of the petite Nation, the Onontcharonons, and many others who are in those quarters,—some Hurons, and even also some Hiroquois, [211] will one day dwell on the Island of Montreal and in neighboring places. This Island ought to be a great resort for many tribes. I do not say of the Hurons, the upper Algonquins, and the Hiroquois, what I have said of the Attikamegues, of the Kakwazakhi, and of the Bersiamites; these latter are lambs, and the former are fierce as wolves; but habitabit lupus cum agno, et puer parvulus minabit eos.

In the fourth place, after Montreal, Video turbam
