

of superstitions; that we have taken the resolution to live and die in [90] obedience to the Faith that we have embraced; and that they must no longer speak to us of anything which might separate us from it. That is not all. We will strongly urge all our countrymen to be baptized. I have a number of relatives, many nephews and nieces; I offer them all to Jesus Christ. I hope that they will be the first to listen to me." After this harangue, the Neophytes separated, full of joy, to see one another some day in Heaven, if they do not again meet on earth. Benedictus Deus in donis suis et sanctus in omnibus operibus suis.
