

verified the Proverb which says that she who marries a husband also marries his humors. Apart from this, the man is of a very good disposition.

It is time to close this Chapter. The Father who was engaged in this employment, that was as holy as it is arduous, was recalled to Kebec. When the savages heard of it, they complained, saying: "Why dost thou leave us? Thou art our Father until our departure. There are so many to instruct. We are thy children; do not abandon us." "Let us shut him up in the Chapel," said some of them, "until the shallop that awaits him has gone away. Oh, that a wind might arise that would compel him to remain with us!" Finally, they had to part, with the promise that they would see each other again when it should please our Lord.
