

went up and, without other noise, put out the fire.

High mass for the Day was said at 8 o'clock, and, before and afterward, two priests said their three masses.

At vespers, some psalms were chanted in faux-bourdon.

Father Vimont, after being present at the Benediction at the Hospital Nuns', went away to beauport, for those who had not been able to come here; he was there 3 Days.

Trip to beauport.

On the 26th, Day of St. Stephen, The village of Sillery came here in a procession to make its stations in order to gain the Jubilee; two of our men bore the banner and the cross; Fathers de Quen and dreuilletes came with them, in Surplices and dominoes, and between them the whole troop of Christian savages to the number of more than a hundred. They came Fasting, at an extremely cold season, and returned without eating. A feast was given them on their return to Sillery, on the part of Monsieur the Governor. They sang very melodiously everywhere, and said a decade of their rosaries.

Savages gain the Jubilee.

On the last Day of the year, the Jubilee was closed; we thought of making a procession, but the winter season is not at all convenient for that; accordingly, we were content with giving the benediction as usual at the end of vespers. Three Cannon shots were fired when the benediction with the Blessed Sacrament was given, and we went to the religious houses to give the benedictions in

The Jubilee is closed.
