

other in Heaven if you persevere in the Faith.' I always have those words graven in my heart, since my son's death. I hope that I shall soon see him, for, in truth, he firmly believed in God." She confessed herself and received the Viaticum, while she had a great oppression on her chest. This did not prevent her from saying, from time to time, "JESUS my guide and my Captain, I believe in your word; you are in my [27] heart, although you appear not. I believe it; yes, in truth, I believe it. Do with me as you will. I shall see you; I shall see you." When she was taken back to her Cabin, the Father some time afterward carried to her Extreme Unction. She never betrayed the slightest sign of sorrow or of fear. You would have said that she was sure of the place to which she was going. Indeed, if we proceed with love and simplicity before God we shall pass from death to life as from Winter to Spring.

A good Christian, who saw that she was greatly oppressed, said to her: "Charité,"—such was her name,—“be not afflicted. I have always had this thought of thee that thou believest firmly in God. If that be the case, be not sorrowful, for thou wilt soon go to Heaven; be constant in the Faith to the last breath.” Mi entian, she replied, Ka nont niteponetauzin; “I am in that disposition, I will no longer only half believe; I believe fully. That is why I am not sad. I am going to Heaven; I believe it.” She died while in that fervor.

One of our Fathers met a woman carrying wood to a sick person. [28] He said to her, after having praised her charity: “When you do a good action toward your neighbor, you must say in your heart,
