

Praised forever be the God of Gods; may his Name be glorified in all the Countries of the Earth. If these Barbarians—who, because they know not God, have hardly any equity or stability—do not disturb this peace,—which is concluded, as far as the French are concerned; and in a very advanced state, as regards the Savages,—it will be possible to go and suffer for JESUS CHRIST in a great many nations.