

Monsieur de maisonneuve was returning; and monsieur Godefroy, another vessel. Three shots were fired from the fort, when monsieur de repentigny left it, having taken leave of monsieur the governor; and three shots from the warehouse, when he embarked in the shallop. All the vessels, upon weighing anchor, saluted, in their turn, monsieur the Governor.

Father Quentin, procuror in ordinary, and our brother dominique skot—who had come from the Hurons, because of his Infirmity of the lungs—went over in the Admiral's ship.

On the 25th, monsieur the Governor set out to go to the Isle aux oyes, where he was cultivating the land, and had thereon 7 workmen. He left monsieur de Chavigny⁶ as His lieutenant, and gave me a sealed paper, in which was the order to be observed in case any accident befell him. He took with him monsieur Nicolet,⁷ priest, and sent the request to me to lend him a furnished oratory. He was given one in which there was a Silver chalice, a new chasuble, a very beautiful and large cloth, and a handsome alb, and everything else in keeping; he especially desired that he be given a candle and hosts; in short, nothing was wanting.

This same Day, monsieur de St. Sauveur⁸ left for beauupré; messieurs of this Company give him 25 écus a year to make some trips thither, and to have charge there of spiritual and temporal affairs. This has been done with our consent, in order to provide meanwhile for a priest at the hospital; but that will Oratory lent to Monsieur Nicolet, priest, etc.; delivered, and described infra.

Trip to beauupré. Monsieur de St. Sauveur.
