Toward the end of the month of October, father le Jeune and father buteux, while returning from Quebec to 3 rivers and Montreal, married by the way a certain Nopce and the daughter of one Picar,¹² who were at that time with monsieur de Chavigny; after this, they lived with Monsieur de la poterie. Monsieur de Chavigny resented this change, and blamed father le Jeune for it; but it appeared afterward that Monsieur de Chavigny was wrong in complaining of father le Jeune.

Marriage of Nopce.

When I arrived at montreal, they had prepared a timber dwelling for our Fathers, and it seemed that there was nothing more to be done than to raise it; but, when they were on the point of doing so, the vessels arrived, bringing word and orders from france to those who commanded at Montreal, to employ all the workmen for other things,—namely, in erecting a hospital, for which large funds had been received in the preceding years; and yet
