

Annunciation, whose office was on the morrow; this benediction consisted of the Litany of our Lady, and of the regina Cæli.

On the 7th, Master Jaques, surnamed "the hermit," began his entrance into our service. He was at the hospital, but desired Urgently to leave it; he repeatedly besought us to receive him with us on such terms as we chose. He was referred to father buteux, who had need of some one, and who received him; he was then withdrawn to our house, with the consent of the hospital, until the departure of some bark bound for 3 rivers; but beforehand we several times set forth to him all that we desired of him,—to wit, father de Quen and our brother liegeois. He accepted everything, and would make no bargain,—professing to desire only his living and his maintenance on a very small footing.

Father Vimont went to stop over night at beauport, on Easter Day, and visited the whole coast, and came back on Thursday; father buteux was at richelieu on palm sunday.

The Ursuline mothers of the Incarnation employed nearly the whole of Lent in painting two pieces of Architecture to match the Tabernacle of the parish church; Monsieur bourdon painted some steps.

Monsieur the Governor, who had sent fresh fish more than once a week, having received two geese on the octave of easter, sent one of them to us. During Lent, we sent him two jars of olives, etc.
