

Two soldiers at 3 rivers had also done the same,—la groye and la fontaine, while we were there; la groye was wounded in two places, for having behaved discreetly, like a Christian; this having been verified by the savages, la fontaine was put in a trench.

Item, I found that the fire, driven by a furious wind, had everywhere made great havoc, and that a certain Guillaume bance had thus lost everything, his house and all in it having been burned; he was aided on all sides, and soon found himself on his feet.

Havoc by fire.

Item, I found that some one had stolen and broken open a Chest, from which had been taken all the man's poor spoil, amounting to more than 25 écus; we vigorously denounced that in the pulpit, as a beginning in a vice which had not yet been characteristic of this side, where all went about without distrust.

Theft.

The benediction of the Blessed Sacrament was held on the Day of Pentecost and on the two following feasts, as at Easter,—in order to give thanks for the success of the journey to 3 rivers; to recommend the journey of father Jogues and of monsieur bourdon; to ask for rain, etc.,—at the Hospital nuns' on monday, and at the Ursulines' on tuesday. On wednesday it began to rain.
