

without staff and his ritual, and I after him; then the body, etc.

On this same day, father le Jeune arrived from montreal, with our brother Ambroise, who was returning from 3 rivers. Arrival of father le Jeune.

On the 9th, I held a Consultation about father Jogues's return to the yroquois; father le Jeune, father Vimont, and Father Jogues were present. It was Resolved that, if nothing else happened, he should not go to winter there, but should stay at Montreal or at 3 rivers; but that, if some excellent opportunity occurred for going thither, it must not be refused. Consultation about father Jogues's return to the yroquois.

On the 14th, father Jogues and father Drouillet started, with two Christian savages, for Montreal.

On the 13th, the bark left which carried some cattle, etc., to father buteux at 3 rivers. Cattle for 3 rivers sent away.

This same Day, there were granted us by Monsieur the governor 18 Arpents of land, as an addition to the lands of la Vacherie,—and this upon our representation of the necessity that we should have some addition for the mill; and especially upon our statement that, for the cession of 6 arpents of land that we had made formerly at Quebec,—where, instead of 12, which had been granted us, they gave us only 6,—nothing had been given us, the Ursuline and Hospital Mothers having been compensated by 30 Arpents in the suburbs. 18 Arpents granted at la vacherie.

We entered into possession of that, and of all our lands of nostre dame des Anges and of
