

the Cape at 3 rivers,—set apart for the Savages, since we had the Grant of it for this year, from Monsieur de la magdelaine: the matter was Undecided.

There were 80 Canoes; they carried away a dozen bundles of skins, for want of Merchandise, and left in order to return the same Day as we,—to wit, the 22nd. Ondiwaharea parted from the main band, and chose to go by the great lake; he was caught by the enemies, of whom there were two Canoes; two men escaped.

Departure of the Hurons.

Father Jogues was to start on the 29th, for his wintering among the yroquois, with lalande, otrihouré,—a huron-yroquoise,—and two or three other Hurons, who were going to see their captive relatives.

*Departure of father

With the Hurons Eustache went up, and the three of whom I have spoken above; Item, two calves, and more than 50 bundles.

On returning to Quebec, we encountered at the Cap a l'Arbre a Shallop, which carried father Daran, who brought us the news of the arrival of Monsieur de Maisonneuve and of Monsieur de repentigny and others, who were near. It was the 20th, when Monsieur de maisonneuve arrived; and on the 23rd arrived Monsieur de repentigny,—and we, too, some hours previously.

Arrival of vessels from france.

With Monsieur de repentigny were father Quentin and some men both for the Hurons and for work down here: Item, a Young gentleman from the house of Courtené, who had been converted at la rochelle and had subse-
