

46 (p. 259).—See vol. ii., notes 35, 77.

47 (p. 263).—See vol. ii., note 81.

48 (p. 263).—Menaue; probably a misprint for Menano (as it appears post): is now known as Grand Manan Island, a favorite summer resort.

49 (p. 265).—See vol. i., note 61.

50 (p. 275).—See vol. ii., note 85.

51 (p. 279).—Pavesade; a sort of screen made of canvas, extended along the side of a vessel in a naval engagement, to prevent the enemy from seeing what is done on board.