

letters from the king, respecting the change of governors; and all the letters brought by the Admiral arrived at Tadousac on the 8th.

On the 15th the procession occurred,—like last year's, except that our brother Nicolas, in Surplice, was the one who bore the cross. The savages were not in sufficient number to form in a body, and thus what there were of them went behind. There were two Surpliced Boys, with Candlesticks, on either side of him who bore the image of our Lady.
