

Onnentisati.—Probably on lot 9 of fourteenth concession in Tiny; but this is only an approximate location, as the Relations do not mention any distances from this village to others on the Point.

Rhinonascarant.—In Tiny, lots 23 and 24 of nineteenth concession; $3\frac{1}{2}$ miles N. W. of La Fontaine; opposite south point of Christian Island, but a little inland. Three villages were grouped under that name, at two leagues from Ihonataria, according to Relation of 1637 (vol. xiii., p. 125; Quebec ed., p. 128, col. 1).

Oênrio.—In Tiny, on lot 10 of seventeenth concession; about $3\frac{1}{3}$ miles N. E. of La Fontaine, and about four miles N. W. of Penetanguishene. It was distant one league from Ihonataria, says the Relation of 1637 (vol. xiii., p. 169; Quebec ed., p. 137, col. 1); and its people had at one time formed part of the same community with those of Ihonataria and Toanché (vol. xiv., p. 23); see also Relation of 1635 (vol. viii., pp. 91, 95, 105; Quebec ed., pp. 28, 31).

Anonatea.—In Tiny, on lot 5 of seventeenth concession; about three miles N. W. from Penetanguishene.

Angoutenc (Angwiens).—In Tiny, on lot 12 of tenth concession, nearly a mile S. E. of St. Patrick's. It was three-quarters of a league from Ossossané, according to Relation of 1638 (vol. xv., p. 23; Quebec ed., p. 34, col. 1); and, in 1636, was being fortified with the usual palisade.

St. François Xavier.—In Tiny, on lot 95 west, Penetanguishene road; about three-quarters of a mile west of Wyebridge. This is about the position given it on Du Creux's map.

St. Louis.—In township of Tay, on lot 9 of sixth concession; on east bank of Hog River, about $1\frac{1}{3}$ miles from its mouth. This corresponds to Du Creux's location. It was one league from Ste. Marie I., and was fortified with palisades, according to Relation of 1649 (present volume, pp. 125-127; Quebec ed., pp. 10, 11).

St. Denis.—In Tay, lot 6 of fourth concession; about one mile N. N. W. of Vasey, on east bank of Hog River (following Du Creux).

St. Jean.—In Tay, lot 6 of eleventh concession; a little west of Fesserton (also Du Creux's location). Some have confounded this mission with that of St. Jean Baptiste; but their difference is clearly shown in the Relation of 1640 (vol. xix., p. 167, and vol. xx., pp. 19-21; Quebec ed., p. 70, col. 1, and p. 90).

Ste. Anne.—In Tay, on lot 9 of fourth concession; nearly $2\frac{1}{2}$ miles N. N. W. of Vasey. It occupied the site given by Du Creux as that of Keiotia. This and the four preceding villages were grouped together to form the mission of Ste. Marie I.
