

circuit was made last year by way of the Cap aux diamans, the grange, etc.

At the hospital and at the Ursulines', we Sang some articles of the litany of the virgin, and then was said the prayer defende, and that of rogation; then, at the hospital, o crux ave, and the prayer of the mass de cruce; and at the Ursulines', the Anthem of St. Joseph and the prayer as usual,—according to the tenor of the ritual, for the Churches by which the processions pass. The paschal Taper was borne in the procession.

At the beginning of may, I made a visitation at the hospital.

On the 17th, we left for 3 rivers. We arrived there the next day, and, two Days later, three Captive yroquois fled. We started on the 29th for Montreal, where, on the 30th, a poor french locksmith was captured.

JUNE.

On the 1st of June, we arrived at Montreal. On the third, which was the Day of Corpus Christi, we made no procession anywhere, on account of the rain; but on Sunday one was made at Quebec, also at Montreal, where I bore the Blessed Sacrament; 12 soldiers marched in front, their heads Covered,—quod grave mihi admodum fuit, nec deinceps tolerandum.

On that same 6th of June, those who were going to the Hurons left,—to the number of 34 frenchmen and two Hurons, in twelve Canoes.

Visitation at the hospital.

Flight of some yroquois.

Journey to 3 rivers and to Montreal.

Massacre, and twofold Capture of Savages and of a frenchman.

Corpus Christi.

Journey to the Hurons.
